

Talkin' About My Generation: Recruiting, Retaining and Mentoring the Next Generation of Librarians

LLNE Spring Meeting
April 25, 2008

Hosted by:
Garbrecht Law Library
University of Maine School of Law

A number of internal and external challenges have been created because of the many generations at work in libraries today. To meet these challenges, librarians need to learn how to work together effectively. Furthermore, librarians need to pay attention to succession planning, passing on institutional wisdom, and recruiting, retaining, and mentoring the next generation of librarians. Come learn from our excellent speakers how to meet these challenges in your library.

The keynote speaker will be Rachel Singer Gordon who will speak to recruiting, retaining and mentoring the next generation of librarians. The afternoon will feature Gayle Lynn-Nelson who will speak to teaching to the multi-generational learners in both the law firm and the law school settings.

Coming Soon: The meeting webpage where you can learn more about the conference speakers, a detailed program, accommodations, and area attractions.
